Vol. 2 No. 2 November 1970

Dear UPAAers:

The "We're No. One" weather prevailing around my new environment of Ohio State surely hasn't rubbed off in this Newsletter. Not only will this be the shortest communication you've received but also a rather disappointing one. So gang, let's hear what you're up to or down under so these mailings are worthwhile.

And in case you haven't noticed my change of address (or missed its reference in the July issue), here it is again:

TRAVELING EXHIBIT

The battling of Ohio State and Purdue a few weeks ago gave me an opportunity to discuss the traveling photos with Jake Jacobson (Purdue) who reported that the exhibit has been at Norwich University (Vermont) since August 21 but that no one else has requested it. Draw your own conclusions, but if we're going to conduct a traveling exhibit, we members are going to have to back it and get it around the country. It's one of the few constant public relations roles we can play throughout the year. If interested in hanging these photos at your college or in your town, write Jake (J. J. Jacobson, Supervisor of Photographic Services, Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana 47907).

DENVER DISPLAY

Richard Purdie of the University of Denver, had an exhibit "DU Theatre in Retrospect" on display at Bonfils Theatre, Denver, during the 1970 DU Summer Lyric Theatre Festival. Purdie showed more than 70 prints taken during several years of photographing DU theatre productions.

SYMPOSIUM NOTES.....From Phil Biscuti

Reserve the dates of April 27, 28, 29, 1971. These are the dates set for the 10th annual Symposium at CONNECTICUT COLLEGE, NEW LONDON, CONNECTICUT. All sessions will be held in the new CUMMINGS ART CENTER on campus. As you may know the UPAA started here in New England and I think it appropriate that the 10th Annual Symposium is being held here as it marks a milestone in our growth.
